Shoal Point announces completion of seismic data acquisition

(Vancouver) – Mark Jarvis, CEO of Shoal Point Energy (CSE: SHP), announced today that the 3-D seismic data acquisition program at the Mount Evans project in Kansas is complete. The seismic survey covered 10 square miles out of the 121 square mile Area of Mutual Interest that Shoal Point shares with partner Shelby Resources LLC.

“The data will now be processed, which could take up to thirty days,” said Mr. Jarvis. “Once processing is complete, we will, along with Shelby, interpret the data, rank the targets and start drilling.”
